Broadview Football Club Membership benefits

Membership of the Broadview football Club is compulsory for board members, officials and all registered players of any sport playing within the Broadview Football Club (and a nominated parent of junior players).

Membership is strongly encouraged for all our supporters and participants who wish to have a vote in the direction our club takes and for those who want to make a direct financial contribution to the running and upkeep of our club.

The club hall and facilities are available for hire – for all details please contact the Bar Manager at the club or our events coordinator Kylie Henderson on 0414 645 534.

All members and players will now pay a $5 fee that will go toward a fund established for the future improvements to our facilities and help qualify the club when applying for grants – Capital Improvement Fund – CIF.
